Agreement between RGS and AYF 2nd edition

April 24th, 2018

This agreement between Rowdy Girl Sanctuary (RGS) located in Angleton Texas with All Y'all's Foods based in Cross Roads, Texas. The agreement is for All Y'all's Foods to donate ten percent of net profits annually to RGS. In exchange for the donations, RGS has agreed to cross-promote All Y'all's Foods plant-based It's Jerky Y'all on their website, social media, sponsorship of events an It's Jerky Y'all banner on-site and I-35 fence or any other ways as we deem appropriate.

We would like to thank Renee for the opportunity to create such a relationship and expect our sales to drive generous donations moving forward. This is a three-year agreement with a review every twelve months or as needed. No other agreements are expressed or implied.

If a time ever comes where there would be a transfer of ownership of All Y'all's Foods a minimum of ten percent of final profits will be happily due Rowdy Girl Sanctuary with the potential to maintain and grow the relationship with the new folks.

All of this information including everything about our agreement and the It's Jerky Y'all brand is strictly confidential until our products launch May 1st 2018.
