Families Choosing Compassion (FCC) program brings families of children who participate in Future Farmers of America and 4-H together, where farmed animals are "projects" that end up being slaughtered or used as breeders. Families are often devastated at the end of the school year when the beloved animal their child has raised must give the animal up. We are not an antagonist but rather a substitute and haven for children and families that can't remain desensitized to the "food" animal structure prevalent in our education systems. We aim to instill a deeper awareness and appreciation of farmed animals as unique individuals worthy of our love and respect.
